KY BOARD OF EDUCATION TO VISIT SCHOOLS

(FRANKFORT, Ky.) – The Kentucky Board of Education will visit schools in the Caldwell County, Calloway County and Murray Independent school districts on Wednesday, September 9.

The board will conduct no business during the visits, which are designed to provide board members with firsthand experiences of activities happening in Kentucky schools. The board periodically schedules regional school visits.

The board also will host area school district superintendents, local board members, area higher education officials and area educational cooperative staffs at a reception on Tuesday, September 8, from 5:30 – 7 p.m. CDT at the Kentucky Dam Village State Resort Park dining room.

An agenda for the school visits on Wednesday follows. All times are CDT.
